(6) In this section—

current weekly earnings in relation to an earner means the earnings of the earner during the week in respect of which a weekly payment is made;

period of entitlement in relation to a person injured as a result of a transport accident means the period during which the person suffers a partial loss of earnings as a result of, or materially contributed to by, the injury but does not include—

 - (a) the person's period of entitlement (as defined by section 44(4)) ends; or

- (b) the expiry of the first 12 weeks of that period of entitlement; or
- (c) the Commission determines the amount of the person's pre-accident weekly earnings.

45AB Interim payments to be reconciled with actual entitlements

- (1) This section applies if the Commission makes a payment to a person under section 45AA.
- (2) Once the Commission determines the amount of the person's pre-accident weekly earnings, the Commission must then determine the difference between—
 - (a) the amount that the person has been paid under section 45AA; and
 - (b) the amount that the person would have been paid under section 44 or 45, during the period in respect of which payments under section 45AA were made, had the amount of the person's pre-accident weekly earnings been determined on the day of the accident.
- (3) If the person was paid less than he or she was entitled to under section 44 or 45 for the relevant period, the Commission must pay the amount of the difference to the person as soon as is practicable after determining the amount.
- (4) If the person was paid more than he or she was entitled to under section 44 or 45 for the relevant period, the Commission may recover the amount of the difference by way of offset from any future payments it is required to make to the person under that section.

45AC Seasonal earners may opt to receive loss of earnings payments on seasonal basis

S. 45AC
inserted by
No. 94/2004
s. 9.

- (1) This section applies if a seasonal earner is injured in a transport accident and suffers a loss of earnings as a result of the injury.
- (2) For the purposes of this section—
 - (a) a seasonal earner is a person who engages in one or more seasonal activities;
 - (b) seasonal activities are activities that occur on an annual basis but that only provide employment for most of the people engaged in them for less than 6 months in any 12 month period.

Example

Fruit-picking, skiing instruction, acting in a television series that is only in production for 5 months each year, acting in school holiday plays, operating a whale-watching boat, making Christmas puddings.

- (3) For the purposes of sections 44 and 45, a seasonal earner may elect to be compensated under those sections during the period of entitlement on a week to week basis as if a reference in those sections to the earner's pre-accident weekly earnings was a reference in a particular week to the earnings the earner could reasonably have expected to earn in that week had the injury not occurred.

Note

This subsection enables a seasonal earner to elect to receive weekly loss of earnings payments on the same pattern that he or she was accustomed to before the injury, that is, for instance, higher payments in weeks in which he or she would normally have been working full time and no, or lower, payments in weeks when he or she would normally have been unemployed or working part time. If no election

Transport Accident Act 1986
No. 111 of 1986
Part 3—Compensation

is made the earner will receive the same amount each week based on a weekly average of his or her earnings in the last 12 months (unless another provision of section 44 or 45 applies).

- (4) An election under subsection (3)—
- (a) must be made in writing and be given to the Commission within 14 days after the earner becomes entitled to receive any payment under section 44 or 45; and
 - (b) has effect for the remainder of the period of entitlement that applies in respect of the injury; and
 - (c) cannot be revoked once any payment under section 44 or 45 is made to the earner in accordance with the election.
- (5) Despite subsection (4)(a), the Commission may waive the 14 day period referred to in that subsection if, in the opinion of the Commission, it is appropriate to do so in particular circumstances.

Note

This section only applies to a person who was injured in a transport accident that occurs on or after the date of commencement of section 9 of the Transport Accident (Amendment) Act 2004—see section 187.

45A Advice of return to work

- (1) If a person who has been receiving compensation under this Act returns to any work (whether as an earner or otherwise), the person must immediately notify the Commission in writing of the return to work.
- (2) A person is guilty of an offence if—
 - (a) the person fails to comply with subsection (1); and

- (b) that failure has materially affected a decision concerning the payment of compensation under this Act.

Penalty: 5 penalty units.

46 Review of eligibility at 18 months

- (1) If it appears to the Commission that a person injured as a result of a transport accident will suffer a loss of earning capacity as a result of the injury 18 months after the accident, the Commission must, at or about that time, review the entitlement of the person to payments in respect of loss of earning capacity.
- (2) If a review under subsection (1) of the entitlement of a person injured as a result of a transport accident for compensation has not been completed within 18 months after the accident, the person continues to be entitled to compensation under section 44 or 45, as the case may be, as if the reference in those sections to 18 months were a reference to the date of completion of the review.

- (a) if the person was not a minor when the accident occurred—

- (3) Judgment against or settlement by a third party in an action in respect of an injury or death referred to in subsection (1), whether by consent or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Commission has taken over proceedings in accordance with section 107, does not eliminate or diminish the right of indemnity given by this section, except to the extent provided in this section.

105 Amounts to be repaid to Commission where damages recovered

- (1) If—
- (a) the Commission has paid an amount under Division 1 of Part 10 in respect of an injury or death resulting from an accident; or
 - (b) the Motor Accidents Board, before the commencement of this section, paid an amount under the Motor Accidents Act 1973, the Accident Compensation Act 1985 or under section 8(2A) or (2B) of the Workers Compensation Act 1958 in respect of an injury or death resulting from an accident—

If damages recoverable by a person in respect of an injury or death as a result of an accident to which Division 1 of Part 10 applies were reduced or an amount recoverable by a person by way of indemnity in respect of an injury or death was reduced by reason that the person who was injured or died was partly responsible for the injury or death, the amount payable to the Commission under section 105 is reduced by the amount that bears, in relation to the amount paid by the Commission, the same proportion as the amount by which the damages recovered were, or the amount recovered by way of indemnity was, reduced bears to the damages or amount by way of indemnity that would have been recovered if the person who was injured or died had not been partly responsible for the injury or death.

155 Provision for case where identity of car cannot be ascertained

- (c) the judgment debtor does not satisfy the judgment in full within one month after it has been entered—the judgment creditor may obtain judgment against the Incorporated Nominal Defendant for a sum equivalent to the amount (including costs) unpaid in respect of the first-mentioned judgment or the amount to which the liability of an authorized insurer might have been limited had there been in force a contract of insurance under the repealed Division relating to such motor car, whichever is the smaller amount but if execution of the first-mentioned judgment is stayed pending appeal the time during which such execution is so stayed shall be excluded in calculating the said period of one month.

- (3) The sum paid to satisfy the judgment obtained against the Incorporated Nominal Defendant and costs are recoverable by the Incorporated Nominal Defendant against the owner or driver of the motor car but—

- (b) if the owner of the motor car is the judgment debtor no sum is so recoverable against the driver of the motor car unless judgment could have been obtained against the driver in respect of the death or bodily injury; and
 - (c) it is a good defence in any action against the driver of the motor car if he or she establishes to the satisfaction of the court that at the time of the occurrence out of which the death or bodily injury arose he or she had or had reasonable grounds for believing that he or she had the authority of the owner to drive the motor car and that he or she had reasonable grounds for believing and did in fact believe that the motor car was a motor car in relation to which there was in force a contract of insurance under the repealed Division; and
 - (d) the sum so paid and the costs are recoverable by the Incorporated Nominal Defendant against, and such defences are not available to, the driver (whether or not he or she is the owner) of the motor car if the driver is convicted of having, at the time of the occurrence out of which the death or bodily injury arose, been under the influence of intoxicating liquor whilst driving the motor car.
- (4) Any amount recovered by the Incorporated Nominal Defendant against the owner or driver of the motor car must be paid to the authorized insurers in the same proportions as the insurers paid to satisfy the judgment and including the costs of the Incorporated Nominal Defendant.

- (b) the liability is one against which such owner or driver had there been in force a contract of insurance under the repealed Division relating to such motor car would have been insured; and
- (c) the owner or driver cannot after strict inquiry and search be found—any person who could have obtained a judgment in respect of the death or bodily injury against the owner or driver if he or she could be found may obtain judgment against the Incorporated Nominal Defendant for a sum equivalent to the amount for which he or she could have obtained a judgment against the owner or driver or the amount to which the liability of an authorized insurer might have been limited had there been in force a contract of insurance under the repealed Division relating to the motor car, whichever is the smaller amount but the person shall not so recover unless—

- (d) within a reasonable time after he or she knew that the owner or driver could not be found he or she gave to the Incorporated Nominal Defendant notice in writing of intention to make the claim setting out his or her full name and place of abode, the date and place of the accident, the general nature of the injuries received and a short statement of the circumstances of the accident; or

- (e) the claimant satisfies the court before which the claim is tried that the Incorporated Nominal Defendant has not been materially prejudiced in his or her defence to the claim by any failure by the claimant to give such notice at the proper time or by any omission from or any insufficiency or defect in the notice.
- (2) The inquiry and search made for the owner or driver may be proved orally or by the affidavit of the person who made the inquiry and search.
- (3) The Incorporated Nominal Defendant is not liable to satisfy any judgment obtained against it but the judgment and the costs of the Incorporated Nominal Defendant must be paid by authorized insurers at the date of the occurrence out of which the claim arose in proportions determined by the Minister.

INTERPRETATION OF LEGISLATION ACT 1984 (ILA)

Style changes

Section 54A of the ILA authorises the making of the style changes set out in Schedule 1 to that Act.

References to ILA s. 39B

Sidenotes which cite ILA s. 39B refer to section 39B of the ILA which provides that where an undivided section or clause of a Schedule is amended by the insertion of one or more subsections or subclauses, the original section or clause becomes subsection or subclause (1) and is amended by the insertion of the expression "(1)" at the beginning of the original section or clause.

Interpretation

As from 1 January 2001, amendments to section 36 of the ILA have the following effects:

- Headings

All headings included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any heading inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. This includes headings to Parts, Divisions or Subdivisions in a Schedule; sections; clauses; items; tables; columns; examples; diagrams; notes or forms. See section 36(1A)(2A).

No. 111 of 1986
Endnotes

- Examples, diagrams or notes

All examples, diagrams or notes included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 form part of that Act. Any examples, diagrams or notes inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, form part of that Act. See section 36(3A).

- Punctuation

All punctuation included in an Act which is passed on or after 1 January 2001 forms part of that Act. Any punctuation inserted in an Act which was passed before 1 January 2001, by an Act passed on or after 1 January 2001, forms part of that Act. See section 36(3B).

- Provision numbers

All provision numbers included in an Act form part of that Act, whether inserted in the Act before, on or after 1 January 2001. Provision numbers include section numbers, subsection numbers, paragraphs and subparagraphs. See section 36(3C).

- Location of "legislative items"

A "legislative item" is a penalty, an example or a note. As from 13 October 2004, a legislative item relating to a provision of an Act is taken to be at the foot of that provision even if it is preceded or followed by another legislative item that relates to that provision. For example, if a penalty at the foot of a provision is followed by a note, both of these legislative items will be regarded as being at the foot of that provision. See section 36B.

- Other material

Any explanatory memorandum, table of provisions, endnotes, index and other material printed after the Endnotes does not form part of an Act. See section 36(3)(3D)(3E).
